

CALL FOR PARTICIPATIONS TO ALL IPC MEMBERS!

Upcoming IPC Youth Global Consultation on Generational Turnover in Family Farming

In many countries, the loss of family farmers, the ageing of the farming population and the difficulties faced by the rural youth are making the issue of generational turnover in family farming an urgent one.

To raise attention on this issue, initiate an intergenerational exchange within the movement and identify the policies, actions and strategies need to enhance generational turnover in family farming, the IPC Youth Working Group with the support of the FAO is organising a dedicated Global Consultation!

All IPC members, youth and non-youth, are called to join the consultation process!

How?

- Take part in this short online questionnaire!
- Register here to participate in the Regional and Global Consultations, which will be held online between July and September 2022!

MORE INFORMATION ON THE SPECIFIC DATES OF THE CONSULTATIONS WILL CIRCULATE SOON !
